Welcome back to school after the Christmas holidays! We hope you all had a great Christmas & would like to wish you a Happy New Year!

Inset Day

Our next Inset Day is on Friday 14th February.

Swimming

Y5 will be going swimming this term! A letter has gone out to Y5 with more details and dates.

A*Stars Update

Our new Sheriffs have been hard at work promoting safe and active travel! They presented the Be Bright, Be Seen assembly in December to the whole school to remind everyone to dress brightly during the dark winter months. There are lots of different activities coming up including Scootbaility, Bikeability and To Go-No Go, so please look out for more information about which activities your child will be taking part in!

Brilliant Behaviour

We are really proud of our children for their fantastic behaviour! During the Autumn 2019 Term our Class Dojo percentages were:

Reception - 100%
Y3 - 100%
Y6 - 100%

Y1 - 100%
Y4 - 99%

Y2 - 99%
Y5 - 100%

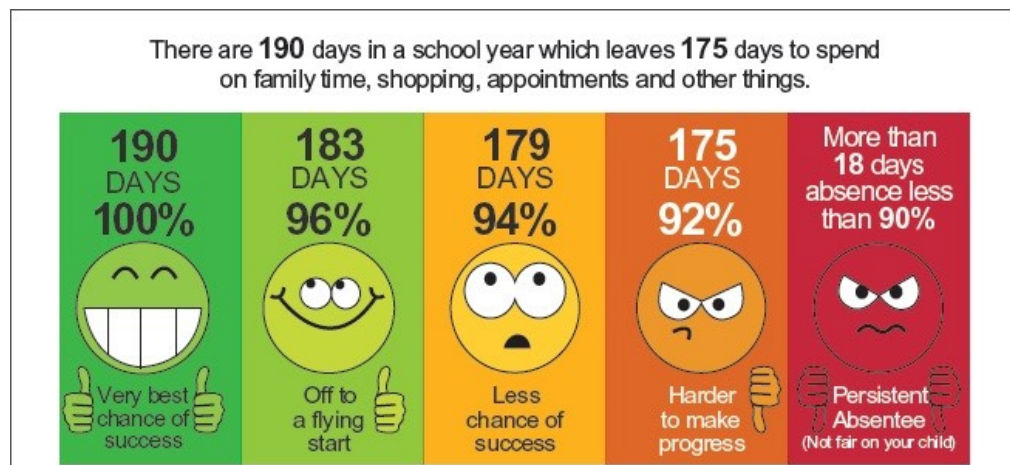

159 children have had 100% green dojos in the Autumn Term. This is more children than last year and is a fantastic achievement!

Awesome Attendance

From 2nd September - 20th December our attendance was:

Reception - 94.95%
Y1 - 94.86%
Y2 - 93.18%
Y3 - 97.10%
Y4 - 93.94%
Y5 - 95.09%
Y6 - 96.46%
Whole School - 95.1%

This is slightly below our target of 96%, however we were hit very hard by the flu bug in December with lots of the children being very poorly. We are confident that this will improve over the Spring Term! 36 children in Reception to Y6 achieved 100% attendance, along with 92 children who had at least 95% attendance - Well Done!

Achievement Assembly

Our End of Term Achievement Assemblies will be:

Thursday 16th January 2.15pm - Jungle, Y1 and Y2

Friday 17th January 2.15pm - Y3, Y4, Y5 and Y6

We didn't get chance to have them before Christmas due to all of the great events in school but we hope you'll join us to celebrate the Autumn Term Achievements.
